

Join Us 125th NATIONAL FAIRBANKS REUNION July 10-11

Dedham, Massachusetts

The Fairbanks Family in America invites you to gather once again at our ancestral home for the 125th National Fairbanks Reunion. This year's gathering is especially meaningful as we celebrate our shared heritage while also marking the approaching America 250 commemoration. There is no better place to reflect on our common story than at the Fairbanks House, where eight generations of the Fairbanks family lived beginning in 1637.

Whether you are a long-time member or joining us for the first time, the reunion offers a unique opportunity to reconnect with cousins, welcome new members of the family, and experience the history of Dedham and the Fairbanks House together.
