THE FAIRBANKS FAMILY IN AMERICA, INC.

WHO WE ARE The Fairbanks Family in America (FFA) is a non-profit association incorporated in 1903 and organized to own and preserve the Fairbanks House in Dedham, MA built circa 1637 for Jonathan and Grace Fayerbanke and inhabited by their descendants until 1904. The house is furnished with objects donated by members of the family. We maintain an expanding archive of information on the Fairbanks family including genealogical records, historic documents, and architectural information about the Fairbanks House. We work to educate members and the public about the history of the Fairbank(s) family. We are governed by a board of directors, and we host a family reunion each year on the grounds of the Fairbanks House.

BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP

- Subscription to the Homestead Courier, published three times a year and filled with information about our family’s past and present and the Fairbanks House and its collections
- Free admission to the Fairbanks House for the FFA member
- A 10% discount on all purchases in our on-site gift shop
- An opportunity to meet other members of our extended family at the annual reunion and other events sponsored by FFA
- A certificate of membership suitable for framing
- Your dues help preserve the Fairbanks House, a tangible link to our past and the nation’s oldest remaining timber-frame house

HOW TO JOIN Acceptance for membership requires reasonable evidence that you are a descendant of Jonathan Fayerbanke of Dedham, MA or the spouse of a descendant. We can assist you by comparing your information to the Fairbanks family genealogy compiled in 1897.

Complete this membership application and return it along with your payment to:

The Fairbanks House, 511 East Street, Dedham, MA 02026

Please allow us four to six weeks to process your membership.
